

March 2018

Weekend Activities start at 5:00 PM

Mar 03 – Women in Spiritism

- Alba Morales

Ms. Morales will talk about women that have positively impacted the development of the Spiritist teachings throughout time, their voices, their histories and their legacy.

Mar 10 – The Dangers of Obsession

- Julio Carvalho (Guest Speaker)

In Spiritism, Obsession is defined as a persistent, unhealthy influence from one (incarnate or discarnate) spirit onto another (incarnate or discarnate) spirit. In this special conference, Mr. Carvalho will cover the different levels of influences that negatively may impact our lives, as well as, how we can prevent them.

Mar 17 – Spiritism & Family Planning

- Kirsten Santos

Sometimes we forget that family planning begins in the spirit realm, way before the thought comes to us. Join us in learning more on this subject!

- Light Dinner Fundraiser at 6:30pm (Soup, Salad, Fruits and Sandwiches...) Price: $20/adult $10 kids.

Mar 24 – Lecture Screening: Easter. In this talk, Marco Magalhaes gives us an explanation of where Easter came from and the different beliefs behind its evolution up to the Easter we know or think we know today.

Mar 31 - Thought and Life (Ch. 7-9)

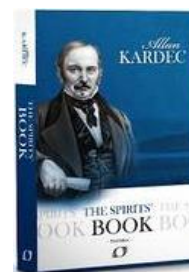

- Leonardo Vieira

Leo will continue the study series of the book "Thought and Life" by Emmanuel/Chico Xavier. Come and join us to learn more about Work, Association and Suggestion from a Spiritist perspective through the words of Emmanuel.

Systematic Study of THE SPIRITS' BOOK

Thursdays at 7:30pm – 9pm

Come and study with us!
Free Admission

"Use every opportunity to act in an elevated manner. Some people wait for extraordinary moments and special occasions, which may never come. It is not important what you do that makes you great or important. It is how you do each thing that will transform you." - Happy Life, Joanna de Angelis, Channeled by Divaldo Franco
