May 27 – Loss of Loved Ones

@ 5 pm – Sheine Martin (Guest Speaker)

How can we find consolation when the ones we love return to their true homes in the spiritual realm? In this talk we will discuss how Spiritism can help us through the knowledge of the Immortality of the Soul. Knowing that there is no death, and we will survive when the physical body can no longer sustain life can bring consolation when we lose loved ones and help us continue our reincarnatory journey until we reunite. This knowledge can allow us in the incarnate plane, help those who discarnate before us, transition and accept their new reality.

"Nothing from outside can disturb a tranquil heart, which beats to the rhythm of duty honestly alone."

Physical Life & Death

"Carnal individuals are more connected to corporeal life than spiritual life, and while on earth they experience only its physical pains and pleasures. Their happiness consists in the fleeting satisfaction of all their desires. Their soul is constantly concerned with and affected by the vicissitudes of life, and hence it remains anxious and in constant torment. Death terrifies them because they have doubts about the future and because they believe that they must leave on earth all their affections and hopes.."

- Kardec's comment in the TSB# 941

"Patience teaches us how to wait when we cannot immediately get what we want."
