Jul 13 – The Talent of Each One of Us

@ 5 pm – Jussara Korngold (Guest speaker)

This talk will explore the profound lessons of the parable of talents from the gospel of Matthew (25:14-30), emphasizing the importance of recognizing and utilizing our unique abilities. The parable teaches that each of us is entrusted with talents, and it is our responsibility to invest and multiply them for the greater good. Participants will be encouraged to reflect on their own talents, no matter how small, and to consider how they can use these talents to make a meaningful impact in their lives and the lives of others. The talk aims to inspire a sense of responsibility and empowerment, urging everyone to cultivate and share their talents for the benefit of all.

Jul 20 – Salvation According to Spiritism

Let's explore the concept of salvation from the perspective of Spiritism, as a process of personal growth and moral development, emphasizing love, charity, and the continuous pursuit of knowledge and virtue.

Intelligence and Instinct

- Is intelligence an attribute of the vital principle?

"No. Plants are alive, but they do not think – they only have organic life. Intelligence and matter are independent of each other; a body may be alive yet lack intelligence, but intelligence can only be expressed through material organs. Only the union with spirit endows animalized matter with intelligence." (TSB q/a # 71)
